SYSTEM NOTIFICATIONS

The notification system alerts you when events occur in your courses, such as when items are due, grades are available, new content and tests are made available, and when you have unread discussions and blogs. Notifications are generated automatically whenever their associated events occur.

Notifications are delivered in the following ways:

- My Blackboard: The Updates page displays notifications for all of your courses and the Posts page displays unread discussions, blogs, journals, and wikis.
- Email messages: Within your @Buffs email address.
- Home Page modules: Within a course, modules display notifications for that course only.
- Blackboard Mobile Learn push notifications: you can opt to have push notifications pop up on your device’s screen.

3. After making your notification selections, click Submit.

By default, dashboard has all notifications turned on, email is turned off for everything except for Course Messages and Announcements, and mobile notifications are turned on for all available options. If you want to receive notifications in ways other than this, you need to edit them.

For the following items, you can select email notifications only if daily digest email is selected in Edit General Settings. If you have not selected daily digest email, the selection boxes for these items is not available:

- Unread discussion board messages
- Unread blog posts
- Unread journal entries
